

The National Educators' Institute for Jewish Service Learning

June 21-25, 2009
University of Maryland, College Park

We're looking for people interested in the fields of Jewish education (both formal and informal) and service. You need not have past experience with Jewish service learning, but you do need to have a demonstrated commitment to the Jewish community. A background in community service is a plus, but not a requirement. An undergraduate degree is required for participation.

Please complete this application form and e-mail to liak@panim.org or fax to 301-770-6365.
